THAT THE WAY OF PROHIBITION IS NOT TRUE," this is what T. A. COLE, head of the whisky trust and founder of the "Manufacturers and Business Men's Association" in Ogden, in a letter to C. A. Smith-white.The whisky trust realizes that the prohibition sentiment is growing all the time, and they are standing every nerve to stay it that they may peddle their death-dealing wares a while longer. But not for long, as the saloon must, and after it, the brewery and the distillery.NEVADA IN ACCOUNT WITH THE

And yet the whisky people will tell you that it ruins a state to adopt prohibition!THE PROHIBITIONISTS AND EARLY CLOSING.The "whisky" columns were headed with such an argument Friday (the first one they have attempted to believe), headed "The Camel and the Prohibitionist." It does credit to them.They join with the mayor in giving credit to the betterment league—the prohibitionists, for the early closing in the new ordinance; they do not join with Mayor Rose, in "All hail to you, Messrs. Commendmen." The fact is Mayor Rose did not know this same council turned down 9 o'clock closing only last fall, and that the work of the prohibitionists has so frightened the saloon keepers that they have permitted their members of the council to vote to close the saloons at 9 o'clock.
However, they "milk" their facts as much as they can. They say: "They (the prohibitionists) have repeatedly said that they would be satisfied if such an ordinance was passed and enforced."We challenge the writer to name one prohibitionist who ever made use of any such language. The prohibitionists have been first, last and all the time for closing the saloons. And since it has been given us to vote upon the subject, no prohibitionist has asked or suggested that an early closing ordinance should be presented.
It is true that when we had no chance to get prohibition, before the legislature passed the law calling this election, we asked for earlier closing; it is also true that we have said to the present council: "Pass this new ordinance." But it was because, in our judgment, it was better regulation than the old one, and not in any sense because we were "satisfied with it." We are not satisfied with, nor are we advocating a restriction ordinance of any kind, but should prohibition fall of adoption, then we desire that saloons be closed when other business houses are, and we shall work to that end until we could get another chance to vote out the saloon.

THE CHURCH ON THIS ISSUE.

The Ogden correspondent of the Salt Lake Tribune seems to be very much worked up, because the Mormon church and the other churches of Ogden City are solid for prohibition. We clip the following paragraphs from his "special" to his paper:
"OGDEN, June 9.—Seldom in the history of the Mormon church political affairs has there been such a determined effort to influence the suffrage of the Mormon vote as has been evidenced since the "wet" and "dry" campaign opened at Ogden."Every president, counselor, bishop and teacher comprising the priesthood received a written notification several days ago requesting them to meet with Apostle David O. McKay and other church leaders at the Weber academy Wednesday evening."While those who attended the meeting are reticent regarding what took place, they freely admitted that they were asked to support the "dry" ticket, and were told that their obligation to do so was as sacred as the articles of faith."We are of the opinion that every word of the above is true. It is not only true of the Mormon church, but it is true of the Methodist, the Baptist, and so far as we know, every Christian body in Ogden City.
Some people would like to have their ministers and teachers preach to them of our Savior and what he did on earth, but get very much wrought up when Christ's teachings are applied to the social conditions of today. Modern churches are no longer satisfied with applying Christ's teachings to the times 1,900 years ago; they desire to bring His teachings before you today, and when a great moral question, such as the closing of the open saloon, is before the people, it is not only theirprivilege, but it is their duty, to instruct their congregations, and they will continue to do so.
What good is our Christianity if we do not live it? A religion based on Christ, which is not applied to today's social conditions, is a humbug! Yes!
We say the Mormon church and the other churches are deadly in earnest in this fight; they feel it is a fight for righteousness, one that Christ would make himself if on earth in person, and they will use every honorable means to "defence" their members to vote dry because "THEIR OBLI-GATION TO DO SO IS AS SACRED AS THE ARTICLES OF FAITH."WOULD OGDEN CITY LOSE OR GAIN BY CLOSING THE SALOONS?Mayor Rose told us in his speech the other evening that the saloon men of Ogden pay out the following amounts each year, using round numbers without the fractions of thousands:

To employees ..... $250,000

For rent ..... $8,000

For license ..... $2,000

For electric lights ..... $3,000

For coal ..... $5,000

For wages ..... $4,000

For telephones ..... $3,000

For gas ..... $2,000

For insurance ..... $2,000

A total of ..... $447,000

Mr. Rose continued by saying this would be a direct loss to Ogden City.
Would it? This $447,000 was here in Ogden before it was paid to the saloon keeper over the bar, wasn't it? The saloon keeper could not pay this out to Ogden and Ogden employees until he had received it, could he? Not only this, but the saloon keeper could not pay this to Ogden City until he had received, over his bar, the cost of the liquor and the beer; the profit for the distiller, the brewer and for himself; amounting, with the $447,000 mentioned by Mr. Rose, to more than $1,000,000.Hence, the drinkers of Ogden must pay over the bar $1,000,000 before the saloon man can return to Ogden $447, 000. Where is the loss? It looks to us like a clear loss to Ogden City of $553,000. And it is more than that, for more; it is a clear loss of the entire million dollars, together with the loss of homes, loss of manhood, loss of love, loss of self-respect.The saloon keeper drains this city of more than one million dollars each year and returns to the city less than half that amount, according to Mr.
Rose's own figures.He gives value to his customer, and he produces nothing. Yes, he does produce drunkards, tipplers, widows, orphans, misery and woe.
Will Ogden lose anything by getting rid of this octopus?
Vote the saloon out!

BEER INJURES THE HEART.

In regard to the effect of beer on the heart, Dr. Victor Horsley says:
"It is probably not realized by many that very small doses of any drink containing alcohol, constantly taken, ultimately cause depression of the efficiency of the heart. The term, 'beer-drinkers' heart' is one well known to the physicians of large hospitals, and indicates a special condition of unhealthy enlargement of the heart, due to dilation, accompanied by some increase of tissue and of fat. Drs.
Bauer and Bollinger found that in Munich one in every sixteen of the hospital patients died from this disorder.
It is common in Germany—the land of beer drinking—and proves incontestably that the habit of drinking even such a mild alcoholic beverage as 'lager beer' is one that is undesirable and unwise."

BIBLE PROHIBITION.

It is reported that at the recent meeting at the Orpheum, held by the saloon advocates, the chairman of the meeting declared that no prohibition could be found in the Bible. He is probably unfamiliar with the ten commandments delivered from Sinai, for in most of them we find positive prohibition. Or, perhaps the doctor has heard of the amendments to these commandments proposed recently by one who thinks they should be shortened, and has done a little amending himself by lengthening them. He would perhaps have some of them read thus:"Thou shalt not kill without first having a license to do so.""Thou shalt not commit adultery except under strict regulation.""Thou shalt not steal unless you can get away with the goods without being caught.""Thou shalt not bear false witness except in the interest of the liquor business.""Thou shalt not covet the money which is spent for liquors and which makes the saloon keeper rich at the expense of women and children."

IT DOES PROHIBIT.

Does prohibition prohibit? Hoken Olson (he) would not, and persisted in telling "boys" contrary to law, but perhaps he will change his mind. Hoken now spends his nights in jail and works on the public roads during the day. In his case prohibition does prohibit, at least for a time.

INSTRUCTIONSNew Liquor Ordinance Must Be Enforced to the Letter—Even Chinese and Japanese Restaurants Must Be Prevented From Serving Liquor With Meals—Retail Licenses Required for Hotels Where Liquor Is Sold—Screens Must Be Removed.The chief of police was given the following written instructions Saturday evening, on the enforcement of the new liquor ordinance:Chief of Police, Ogden, Utah.—Dear Sir: It is my wish that the new liquor ordinance shall be strictly enforced in Ogden City. Every liquor store must be closed at 9 o'clock each evening. After the place is closed there must be no blinds or partitions or other obstructions, preventing a person standing on the sidewalk looking through the doors or windows from seeing the entire room inside. There are no objections to putting a removable screen a few feet from the door to keep people standing at the bar during the daytime. But only such screens and partitions must be used that can be removed at 9 o'clock and stay away until the next morning at 6 o'clock, and must also be removed on each Sunday and Sunday night.A stationary partition with swinging doors open is not a compliance with the above, or a compliance with the law of the state or city. Therefore all partitions between the window and the rear of the room must positively be removable. All windows that are painted so that people cannot look through them must have the paint removed.If you are content for a day or two in enforcing the above provisions, because it will take a few hours to make the change. But if there is no indication by Monday night of an effort to comply with the provisions, as above stated, you must promptly prosecute the violators of the law.I also desire to call your attention to the fact that at 9 o'clock, when the saloons are closed, no other person is permitted to sell liquor, either as an excuse with meals or otherwise unless his place is a dining room connected with a hotel having twenty-five rooms, and then only on conditions that such parties have a retail license to sell liquor.I am advised that since the new ordinance has passed that people are getting drinks with meals at the Chinese and Japanese restaurants in the city. If you discover any intoxicating liquor on any table in any restaurant, you will promptly arrest the proprietors, also the parties who were sitting at the table where such liquor was to be consumed.Drug stores are permitted to sell liquor for medicinal purposes only. I want you to instruct your men to be especially careful about drug stores selling liquor when on its face it would show that the liquor was not used for medicinal purposes. Also please instruct your men to call at each drug store and ask for the liquor license, and if it is not there, request them to procure one immediately. Also notify the drug stores that they will be expected to use proper discretion in selling liquor as to whether it is used for medicinal purposes or not. Drug stores will be permitted to sell liquor indiscrimi-nately. They must make an effort to learn whether the liquor applied for is intended for medicinal purposes.You will also notify all saloons in which there are restaurants, lunch counters, cafes, that they must remove the same before the evening of the 15th of this month, or cease to do business as cafes, lunch counters and restaurants by that time.
You will also instruct each saloon that all tables, booths, screens, chairs and other paraphernalia in the saloon, excepting only the bar, the sideboard and only chairs enough for the bar-keepers and attendants, must be removed promptly and the removing of such superfluous furniture and fixtures must begin not later than Monday, June 12, and must be completed not later than Thursday, June 15.Also that Section 28 of Chapter 106 be called to the attention of saloon-keepers and see that the same is enforced.

Save FatherWe have the following letter from C. H. Rivenburg, the Chester, Mass., druggist: "I enclose check for your account with great pleasure. About four months ago my father, aged 72 years, was told he was dangerously ill with Bright's Disease by a first-class M. D. and for two or three months was under his care. He gradually became weaker and was in bad condition before I knew the nature of his trouble. I at once traveled about a hundred miles to see that my father commenced to use the Renal Compound and now wish to report to you that his doctor says the danger is all passed and there is not a trace of albumen. In this not a wonderful cure, taking into consideration the fact that my father had Diabetes for many years before the Bright's Disease developed. Today he and we are all happy at his recovery. You may use this if you wish. My father is James Rivenburg, 247 Clinton avenue, Albany, N. Y.Yours very respectfully, C. H. RIVENBURG.According to authorities, Chronic Kidney Disease is incurable, hence patients on the Orthodox Babbam's Mixture, Digitalis, Nitro-Glycerine, etc., die not only as admitted by the books, but as shown by the census, (annual deaths now nearly 90,000 a year.)What excuse can there be for not giving patients and their families the hope of recovery that is offered by the simple addition of a renal emulsion to the heart, tonic and eliminative prescriptions that are now being giving and it is so much children take it.
Its one tendency is to reduce the renal obstruction, thus changing the prognosis from despair to hope.
Flying full in the face of all the text books in Christendom, we declare chronic kidney disease now curable in a majority of cases.

COUNTY COMPANYAnson C. Call has commenced suit in the district court against the Davis County Light & Power company, the Home Telephone & Electric company, Thomas Phillips, receiver for the Home Telephone company, et al., to recover $1,075.50 alleged to be due for certain stock and for the wiring of residences to be lighted by the so-called electric light company. Aside from $100 claimed to be due the plaintiff, the balance is alleged to have been assigned to Mr. Call by the following named persons, making eight counts in the complaint: Edward Sewell, J. M. Brown, Herbert L. Griffin, Charles E. Bennett, Frank Telle-son, Wander Bouwhuis and Alfred Therogood.The complaint alleges that in the year 1910 Samuel and J. W. Cotterell visited the parties above named and represented to them that the companies named as defendants contemplated the erecting of an electric light plant, and that they were authorized to sell stock to raise money with which to complete the plant. Certificates of stock were issued to the parties in accordance with the number of shares of stock purchased, and, in most instances, the residences of the purchasers were wired for electric lighting.It was learned, however, as alleged, that the representations were false, and that the companies in question had no electric light plant and that they were not building one. On the contrary, they had only a small telephone plant operating almost solely in Davis county. The plaintiff asks to be reimbursed for the money expended through false misrepresentation.

A Great Physician

What He Said of Germs That Cause Disease.M. Pasteur, sometimes called the Greatest Physician often said: "I believe that we shall one day rid the world of all diseases that are caused by germs."Of all the diseases caused by germs, catarrh is one of the most persistent and loathsome. Catarrh can be cured, but only by destroying the germs.
Breathe HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-mei) and cure catarrh by killing the germs. The HYOMEI method is the most reliable method, because you breathe the germ antiseptic and germ killing air directly over the entire membrane infested with cattarrh germs.HYOMEI will cure catarrh. There may be some complicated cases where it will fail, but the chances are ten to one in its favor, and the sufferer from catarrh takes no risk, because HYO-MEI is a guaranteed remedy, and if it doesn't cure, BADCON PHARMACY will refund the purchase price.HYOMEI will also give instant relief and cure in bronchitis, cough, colds and croup. A complete outfit, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00. If you own a Hyomei Inhaler you can get a bottle of HYOMEI for 50 cents.STREETS DESERTED AFTER 10 O'CLOCKWhere did the Saturday night throne go after the 9 o'clock closing?
The business houses were still open and many did a little late shopping.
Those who had no shopping to do continued in their evening walk to get a little fresh air and exercise. Their children were along in many instances and they enjoyed the evening air, together with the Commercial Travelers' convention decorations on the business houses from the Union depot on Twenty-fifth street to Twenty-second street on Washington avenue. It was a quiet, happy throng.It has been argued by many that the closing of the saloons at 9 o'clock would be the means of filling the pool and billiard halls, but Saturday night's investigation on the part of an Examiner representative proved this to be a wrong conclusion. These places were not more liberally patronized than they have been on Saturday nights of the past, and there were about as many playing billiards and pool before 9 o'clock as there were after that hour.It seems that the pool and billiard halls are patronized mainly by young men who are barred from entering the saloons and, of course, the 9 o'clock closing made no particular difference in the number of young fellows at the tables Saturday night. There was no rowdiness at the pool rooms and from a casual observation, no drunkenness could be discerned.After the nine o'clock hour a great many of the younger people repaired to Glenwood hall, where dancing was in vogue, and those who had been at work up to that hour went to their homes for the night. General business houses closed at 10 and the evening shoppers left immediately after city.
